FORD—THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Facts—Get the facts on the operating costs before you buy an automobile. Find out the truth before—not after. And don't be satisfied with hearsay or a salesman's claim. The price of gasoline is high; so is oil, and there is sure to be an increase in the price of all tires. So, what you want is the car that will give you most miles per gallon of gasoline, per gallon of oil and per set of tires. A Ford will go anywhere any other car will go and lots of places others won't go.

Boggs-Anthony

One of the most beautiful weddings in the history of Pickens was that of Miss Maki Boggs and Mr. Robert Anthony, which was solemnized Tuesday evening at 8.30 o'clock in the Pickens Methodist church.

The color scheme of green and white was artistically carried out in the decorations. Before the wedding party entered Mrs. C. L. Hester beautifully sang "At Dawning" and "Oh, Promise Me," with violin accompaniment, after which, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the wedding party slowly advanced to the altar. First came the ushers—Messrs. Mack Christopher, A. J. Boggs, Ralph Hester and Earle Morris. Then followed six bridesmaids—Misses Burns of Laurens, Cunningham of Greer, Elizabeth Algood of Williamston, Mattie Finley, Nellie Grandy and Lorena Taylor of Pickens, with six groomsmen Messrs. Earle Seaborn, Hagood Bruce, Bertran Porter, Dwight Attaway, Sam Craig and Vincent Hamilton. Following these came the ring-bearer, Master Frank Partridge, carrying the ring in the heart of a large Easter lily, and the flower girl, little Miss Mary Grayley, beautifully dressed in pink, carrying a pink basket filled with sweet peas. Then came the bride, who was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin with crystal trimmings. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. With her was her maid of honor, Miss Ina Boggs, becomingly attired in pink crepe de chine and carrying pink roses. Down the opposite aisle the groom came with his best man, Mr. Ernest Alexander.

One of the most beautiful features of the wedding was the giving away of the bride by her grandmother, Mrs. Aaron Bogg, who is in her 88th year of life. During the ceremony Oliver Boggs, with a piano accompaniment by Miss Meda Boggs, softly played "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell. The bridesmaids were becomingly gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets with pink ribbons. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Dr. D. M. Ramsay, of Greenville, assisted by Rev. L. E. Wiggins, pastor of the Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Boggs are among the county's most popular young people and their hosts of friends wish for them a long, happy and prosperous life.
